Littlehale-Ordway

A very pretty wedding took place Sunday afternoon, May 2nd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Taylor, Frye, when Elvira Florence, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Ordway of Bryant Pond and Lawrence Werner Littlehale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Littlehale of Wilton Mills were united in marriage.

The bridal party marched down the driveway into the parlor to the strains of "Swanee Song," which was played by Evelyn O. Taylor, a sister of the bride. The bride and groom stood beneath an arch decorated with bouquets of evergreen and carnations. Rev. Harold W. Curtis, pastor of the first Baptist church, Bryant Pond, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white silk crepe and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Sylvia O. Jenkins of Bryant Pond, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a gown of blue and white. Sherman O. Ordway of South Paris, an uncle of the bride, was best man. After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Littlehale left Monday morning on a wedding trip, the bride traveling in a dress of pencil blue hat, cape, wrap and fur of brown and hat of blue and gold.

Where Economy Rules

NORWAY, MAINE

Will your wife, too, have this added protection?

The creation of a life insurance fund is the duty of every man, but it is just as much a duty for him to take every precaution to provide for the conservation of this fund, to insure its being used to do the things for which it was secured.

Every man who carries life insurance has a feeling of security in the thought that in the event of his death a goodly sum of money will be turned over to his wife for her support and for the care and education of his children.

But many men have often been worried by the thought of what might happen to that money when it is thus turned over.

Taking care of money requires experience. In this age of speculation, of tax intricacies and other problems, a lack of experience often leads to disastrous results.

Why not prevent such a possibility?

The best plan is to carry life insurance made payable to the Norway National Bank as Trustee. In this way the bank will invest the money and will pay the income to your widow or other dependents.

To the man who has accumulated much or little, this means of providing for his family offers a wonderful opportunity.

We will be glad to give you complete information about Life Insurance Trusts. Ask any officer.

Lesson for May 9

ABRAHAM AND THE KINGS

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 14:1-12.
GOLDEN TEXT—In all things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us.—Rom. 8:37.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Abraham Saves Lot From Danger.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Abraham Rescues Lot.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Abraham's Courage and Generosity.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Victory Through Faith and Courage.

I. Lot Taken Captive (14:1-12)

Lot's misfortune was due to his selfishness in choosing the best land regardless of the moral risks in his associations (13:10, 11). The Jordan valley was very fertile, but a place of moral snares because Sodom was there. Frequently this pasture for cattle contains poisonous growths. Lot's trouble was not primarily because he was a bad man, but because of his associations. The story taken by Lot as shown in chapter 13 were:

1. He lifted up his eyes and beheld (v. 10).
2. He chose him all the plain (v. 11).
3. He dwelt in the cities of the plain (v. 12).
4. He pitched his tent toward Sodom (v. 12).
5. He sat in the gate of Sodom (13:1).
6. He rescued Lot (13:13).
7. He brought Lot to Abraham (v. 13).

Abraham was in a place of safety. Just why the man who had escaped came to Abraham with the news we do not know. Perhaps Lot had requested him to tell Abraham of his misfortune, making known the fact of his kinship and through him appealing for help.

2. Abraham in pursuit (vv. 14, 15). Abraham, the great-hearted, forgot Lot's selfishness and ingratitude, organized his servants and by a night attack defeated the enemy. Abraham might just have left Lot to his fate, but because Lot was his brother he forgot his wrongs.

3. Lot rescued (v. 16). Not only was Lot saved, but the women and his goods were rescued. Because Abraham was separate from Sodom he was able to save his brother. The one who is separate from the world has power to overcome it, while the one who is joined to the world is helpless and is carried away with its ruin.

III. The Ministry of Melchizedek (vv. 17-20)

Melchizedek, a mysterious person, suddenly appears on the scene. His name signifies "king of righteousness." He was also king of Salem, Salem means peace. The name is descriptive of his office, rather than a proper name. He is a type of Christ. The following features are suggested by A. T. Pearson:

1. He represents a primitive universal faith, antecedent, outranking and surviving the Levitical.
2. He was the priest of the Most High God—a more comprehensive name than Jehovah.
3. His order of priesthood was not local or temporary, but universal and permanent.
4. He outranked even Abraham, who paid him tithes as to a superior.
5. He was prophet, priest and king—all in one, a sort of threefold personage.
6. He was not reckoned according to human genealogy nor limited course of service.
7. He was both king of righteousness and king of peace. Righteousness pertains to the name of the nation and peace, to the realm. Abraham gave tithes to Melchizedek, and this was the standard of giving in the Old Testament, but the New Testament puts giving on a higher plane. In I Corinthians 13:1 the believer is instructed to give as the Lord prospers.

IV. Abraham and the King of Sodom (21-24)

The king of Sodom offered Abraham reward. Abraham was quick to discern his peril in receiving gifts from him. He knew that what he had done was through the grace of God upon him. He would not take this grace for private gain, would not complicate himself with the world for the sake of money. He anticipated this temptation and had covetousness with God not to yield to it (vv. 22-23). Ministers and evangelists have made grievous mistakes in receiving and even seeking financial help from godless people. The God who is possessor of heaven and earth does not need the help of the world. The world must have opportunity to boast.

Our Punishment

The seeds of our punishment are sown at the same time we commit the sin.—Heslod.

Nearly three years ago he took cold and was taken sick very soon with measles, and has never seen a well day since. Although his parents gave him everything he could wish for and the best of care, he seemed to be needed elsewhere. He was a faithful and regular member of Waterford Grange as long as health allowed. He was ever ready to play the piano at grange, circle and any of the social gatherings when requested. He bore his trouble with patience and made plans for going in the auto. The funeral was held at the home at 2 p. m., Sunday, Rev. W. I. Ball officiated and spoke comforting words to the bereaved.

The floral offerings were beautiful, from the grange, circle and Sunday school, also a beautiful wreath from neighbors, beside many other nice pieces from relatives, also a large bunch of Mayflowers. The deceased was 23 years of age. He was laid to rest in Woodlawn cemetery.

DOLLING UP THE HUMBLE POTATO

Four Unusual Recipes by Four Famous Cooks

Don't think that after you've served potatoes mashed, creamed, and fried you've put them through all their paces. You don't have to begin repeating the old story. There are many delightful ways of preparing the humble spud, as several famous cooks have discovered. They actually glorify this homely American vegetable!

Tamapais Potatoes

Tamapais Potatoes doesn't the very name make your mouth water? This delicious dish, prepared from left-over potatoes, is a favorite with home economics counselors and writers.

Chop fine 3 cups cold boiled potatoes. Add 4 cup of cream, and salt and pepper to taste. Pack very solid in buttered custard cups, or muffin pans. Set in a pan in a very hot oven. Bake 30 minutes, or until golden brown crust has formed which will hold the potatoes together. Turn out in individual molds.

Baked Potato "Tips"

Mrs. Sarah T. Rorer, Philadelphia cooking expert, adds two or three artful touches to baked potatoes which make them taste unusually good.

"After scrubbing large, perfect potatoes, I soak them an hour in cold water," she says.

"I bake them on the upper rack of a medium oven, and turn them after 20 minutes. I let them bake another half hour, or until they feel soft when pressed with a fork, for this allows the steam to escape and makes them heavy. Serve in a napkin at once."

"Never try them with a fork, for this allows the steam to escape and makes them heavy. Serve in a napkin at once."

"The secret of good baked potatoes is a slow oven; for a hot oven hardens the skin at once and makes the potatoes soggy."

Stuffed and Browned

Miss Margaret Allen Hall, nutrition expert at the Battle Creek College of Home Economics, has a delectable recipe for stuffed potatoes. She fixes them like this:

6 medium-sized potatoes
1/2 cup milk or cream
3 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon salt

Select well-shaped potatoes about equal size. Bake until soft, then cut or break each potato at about the middle. Remove the contents, mash, add salt, butter, and sufficient cream or milk to cause the potato to heat up light. When very light, fill skins with the seasoned potato, piling it up in irregular shapes. Set the stuffed potatoes in oven a few minutes to brown.

a la Pittsburgh

Mrs. Kate Brew Vaughn, home economics director, of Los Angeles, teaches cooking to 100,000 women every year. Her Pittsburgh Potatoes are rich enough to serve as the only cooked luncheon dish, she says.

"I served with a good salad they provide a delicious meal. Here is her recipe:

1 lb. potatoes
1 cup grated cheese
1/2 cup bread crumbs
1/2 cup butter
4 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
Salt and pepper

Dice potatoes and boil until soft. Put a layer of potatoes in baking dish. Sprinkle with grated cheese, salt, pepper, butter and chopped pimientos. Add another layer of potatoes and repeat with cheese and pimientos. Cover over this one cup white sauce. Bake in oven until well browned on top.

Prepare the white sauce by melting two tablespoons butter, and stirring in flour until smooth (2 tablespoons), then add one cup milk and salt and pepper.

There you are! Four tempting potato recipes, easy to prepare, favorites of four famous cooks. Specialists. Try them or your family. They will welcome these unique variations of the potato theme.

Women who cook with oil will appreciate one that will cook with stove models with a reversible, hands do not come in contact with the kerosene at all.

Whitens Hands

Before using rubber gloves sprinkle baking soda lightly. You'll find them easy to remove, and your hands will be whitened.

When to Use Salt

Underneath vegetables, the roots or stems of plants, should be cooked in boiling unsalted water. They contain a certain amount of water which is hardened by salt.

"Top ground" ready to serve, as, beans, cabbage, and onions, are much better off in boiling, unsalted water. Cooked this way they retain their color, and their flavor is intensified.

Daylight Saving

O. H. Haskell of Sweden Writes Regarding Changing Time.

Dear Sir: I saw the call for the daylight saving meeting in your paper of April 30th at the court house. At this time I do not know how your people have decided, but I hope for standard time. Their time ahead or in any way advertise daylight saving time, are breaking the law as much as if the banded together to shoot deer in closed time. As there is no penalty to it they hope to get by with it. I think at this time above all others we need to all work together if we wish to boost Maine. It does not seem to me that Portland or any city or village in the state of Maine will be any better off in the end to line up against the law and the farmers. They may not love the farmers, but they need them just the same. I have an idea that quite a number of the farmers will not get up early and fall over themselves to go to Portland to trade, when they can save the day at home and have their goods come to their door from a mail order house. The same rule will apply to villages in a great measure. Thinking perhaps you would like to know how some of the farmers feel about this is the reason I write.
